Tuesday 3 May

09.30-10.00 OPENING REMARKS

10.00-12.00 Concurrent session 1 ENLIGHTENMENT(S)

Peter Anstey (University of Sydney): Principled Enlightenment
Devin Vartija (Utrecht University): Beyond ‘Radical’ and ‘Moderate’ Enlightenments
Felix Steilen (Tel-Aviv University & Humboldt-Universität): Durkheim’s Enlightenment
Shiru Lim (University College London): ‘Is it useful to deceive the people?’: Frederick the Great and the philosophes on public/private Enlightenment, c.1740-1780

10.00-12.00 Concurrent session 2 ALTERNATIVE EUROPE(S)

Torbjörn Gustafsson Chorell (Uppsala University): Why are identities a problem?
James Bartholomewsz/Antonis Galanopoulos, Europe's New Dichotomy: The Need for an Alternative Discourse
Mihail Evans (New Europe College, Bucharest): A Plea for the Balkanisation of Europe
Mykhailo Minakov (National University of Kyiv-Mohyla Academy, Kiev, Ukraine): Idea of 'Big Europe' and multiple modernities

10.00-12.00 Concurrent sessions 3: RECLAIMING THE EARLY 20TH CENTURY

Anthony Crezegut (Sciences-Po Paris): Europeanizing Gramsci. An uneasy de-provincialization: from the French nationalization of an Italian reference to its alternative globalization
Georgios Giannakopoulos (Remarque Institute, NYU): Science the Unifier? On the internationalization of Historical Studies in early twentieth century Europe
Giuseppe Bianco, (Lyon III / NYU): The Collective Construction of the Universal Mind
Anna Mahera (University of Ioannina): Maurras, Bourget, Gide: The debate on classicism and romanticism in two journals, the Revue critique des idées et des livres and the Nouvelle Revue Française (NRF), in the first decade of the 20th century.

10.00-12.00 Concurrent sessions 4: RECLAIMING THE 19TH CENTURY

Mats Andrén (Gothenburg University) Europeanization in the mind: community values in the 19th century
Maria Fragkou (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki): History of European nihilism: meanings and ideas in 19th Century
Fani Giannousi (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki): A bourgeois apprenticeship in democracy: Guizot and the Doctrinaires
Tommaso Giordani (European University Institute): Redefining historical materialism in the peripheries of Marxism: Sorel and Labriola between Italy, France, and Germany

12.00-13.00: METHODS IN INTELLECTUAL HISTORY:

- Mikko Tolonen (Helsinki Collegium for Advanced Studies): Digital Humanities Project
13.00-14.00 LUNCH

14.00-16.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 5: EUROPEAN ART HISTORY
PANEL Paths of European art between classic and modern, Vasiliki Petridou (University of Patras): The concept of model and prototype in European art, Assimina Kaniari (Athens School of Fine Arts): Panofsky’s ‘Galileo as a critic of the arts’: Contemporary relevance of a 1950s example in art historiography, Phoebus Panigyrakis (TU Delft):
Classicism and the idea of Style
- Aris Sarafianos (University of Ioannina): Allan Ramsay’s Political Realism in the Sphere of Civilisation: Art Fashions, Power Habits and “Rights of Conquest”

14.00-16.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 6: EUROPE VIEWED FROM ITALY
Giuseppe Menditto (University of Rome La Sapienza): L'Europa di Ulisse. Some remarks on the philosophical premises in the Ventotene Manifesto
Or Rosenboim (Cambridge): Redeeming Europe: Cesare Battisti, European federalism and the myth of the nation (1900-1916)
Giuseppe Greco (Scuola Normale Superiore, Pisa): Civic republicanism in revolutionary Southern Italy: the case of Luigi Galanti (1799-1821)
Stefano Zappoli (Università degli Studi di Bergamo): Italy and modern Europe: ‘Rinascimento’ and ‘Risorgimento’ in the Italian 19th and 20th century

14.00-16.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 7: PANEL Contractualism, Impartiality, Universality: A comparative approach to Enlightened strategies of justifying the authority of social norms
Christel Fricke (University of Oslo) Jannis Tassopoulos (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens) Konstantinos Papageorgiou National and Kapodistrian University of Athens)
- Harris Mylonas (Georges Washington University): National Integration Crisis in Europe

14.00-16.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 8 SPECTRES OF EUROPE
Fabienne Brugère (Paris VIII) The spectre of hospitality in Europe
Ann McGrath (Australian National University): How the Modernizing ‘Primitive Man’ became a European
Joyce Goggin (Universiteit van Amsterdam): “Abyss is the name we give to whatever we cannot bridge”: Kazantzakis’ Report to Greco and the Challenge of Global Intellectual History

16.00-16.30 International Society for Intellectual History meeting
16.00-17.00 COFFEE BREAK

17.00-19.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 9: THE REPUBLICAN TRADITIONS IN EUROPE
Rafal Lis (Jesuit University Ignatianum in Krakow): Commercial Society and Republicanism from Two National Perspectives. Parallels and Differences in the Political Thought of the Scottish Enlightenment and the Polish Four Year Sejm. Ramón Bárcena Colina (Universidad de Cantabria): The liberal and republican origins of the European program
Nikola Regent (ANU): The Greek Republics and the Pernicious Effects of Wealth in Early-Modern Republican Thought
Konstantinos Bizas (University of Jyväskylä): Quentin Skinner’s Work on the State

17.00–19.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 10: EUROPEAN HISTORY AND TEMPORALITIES
Vasso Kindi (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens): Continuity and difference in tracing the histories of concepts. The case of Europe
Alexandra Lianeri (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki): Temporalities of dēmokratia in the history of European political thought
Marco de Waard (Amsterdam University College/Amsterdam School for Cultural Analysis): Temporalities of Intellectual History: The Case of J. S. Mill
Catalina Popescu & Onoriu Bradenu: The Odyssey of a Soldier Memory

17.00–19.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 11: PANEL Trust in 'European' Numbers: The Origin and Myriad Interpretations of Adolphe Quetelet’s 'Social Physics' in the United States and Russia
Christopher Donohue (National Institute of Health) Jan Surman (Herbert institute, Marburg) Alexander Dmitriev (State University -- Higher School of Economics, Moscow) Kevin Donnelly (Alvernia University):

17.00–19.00 CONCURRENT SESSION 12: PANEL Istvan Hont and his legacy
Alexandra Medzibrodszky (Central European University), Béla Kapossy (University of Lausanne), Eva Piirimäe (Johan Skytte Institute of Political Studies, University of Tartu) Sophus A. Reinert (Harvard Business School)

19.30–21.00 KEYNOTE I — CULTURAL CENTRE OF RETHYMNON:
E. BALIBAR (Paris-Ouest/Kingston): The Idea of Revolution: yesterday, today, and tomorrow

WEDNESDAY 4 MAY

09.00–11.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 1: VIEWS OF EUROPE FROM THE ANTIPODES
Sara Marzagora (SOAS, University of London): From the “smallest of the big nations” to the “biggest of the small nations”: Europe and Africa in Ethiopian political thought (1900s-1960s)
Vitor Claret Batalhone, Júnior (Rural Federal University of Rio de Janeiro – UFRRJ): Along the ocher brick road: experiencing the Brazilian hinterlands through European historical lenses: the case of Euclides da Cunha.
Hazem Jamjoum (New York University): The Nahda Revisited: Concepts of Europe and Musical Reform in the Arab World, 1890–1940
Julius Nabende (Kenyatta University): The imagery of Europe in Kenyan Intellectual History

09.00–11.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 2: PHENOMENOLOGICAL/ANALYTIC EUROPEAN TRADITIONS
Jose Daniel Parra (University of Toronto): After the Figure of Europe: Remarks on Heidegger’s Nietzsche
Daniel Steinmetz-Jenkins (Columbia University/Sciences Po): From Disinterest to Obsession: Modern European Intellectual history and theology
Christian Sternad (Husserl Archives - KU Leuven): The Crisis of Europe and the Reason to Come
David Loner (University of Cambridge): Wittgenstein’s second philosophy and the history of its reception by American philosophers after 1951

09.00-11.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 3: NATURAL HISTORY AND SCIENCE IN EUROPE
Stephen Gaukroger (University of Sydney): “Go Proud Reasoner and Call the Worm Thy Sister”: Comparative Natural History and the Question of the Human Species in the Eighteenth Century
Håkon Evju (University of Stavanger, Norway): The Debate over Ancient Populousness and Great Migrations in 18th Century Denmark-Norway
Vladimir Glebkin (Russian Presidential Academy of National Economy and Public Administration): Cultural-Historical Underpinnings of Early Modern Science: The Case of Francis Bacon and René Descartes
James A.T. Lancaster (Royal Holloway, University of London): A Common Cause? Between the Sacred and the Natural in Early Modern Historiographical Practices

09.00-11.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 4: GREECE/EUROPE II
Eleni Filippachi (Hellenic Open University) & Spyridon Rangos (University of Patras): The place of wonder in the theory and practice of European philosophy from antiquity to the Present
Helena Patrikiou: Omissions and Concealments about an alleged common heritage. Ancient and Modern Greece in European Intellectual Context
Dimitrios Gkintidis (Centre for Advanced Study, Sofia): Speaking for Europe: notes on the epistemological and political trajectories of European Studies in Greece

11.00-11.30 COFFEE BREAK

11.30-13.30 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 5: RECLAIMING EUROPEAN ENLIGHTENMENT
PANEL Christopher Berry’s The Idea of Commercial Society in the Scottish Enlightenment(2013) Robin Mills (King’s College London), Themes emerging from Christopher Berry’s The Idea of Commercial Society in the Scottish Enlightenment(2013), Mikko Tolonen (Helsinki Collegium for Advanced Studies) Unity, political theory and the Scottish Enlightenment Response by Christopher Berry
Lionel Laborie (Goldsmiths): Visions of Europe in the Long Eighteenth-Century
Sean Irving (University of Manchester): From Weimar to Whiggism: The German origins of Hayek’s British liberalism

11.30-13.30 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 6: EUROPE’S ALTERITIES
Naveen Kanalu (University of California Los Angeles): The Differential between Europe and its Others: The Contestations between Europe as the Rational Self and the Othering of Europe as Discourse in Twentieth-century Intellectual History
Alexandru Mexi (“Vasile Goldis” Western University of Arad, Romania): Rethinking garden meaning, Chaos and reason in Early Modern Europe - the search for Oneself
Gunay Heydarli (Baku State University): Islamic influences on Western art
Thomas Hippler (Sciences Po Lyon): Europe and Peace
11.30-13.30 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 7: SECULARISM(S)

Philippe Raynaud (Université Panthéon-Assas): European Humanity and European Politics
Nikos Sigalas (Centre for Turkish, Ottoman, Balkan and Central-Asian Studies, CETOBAC): “Disenchantment”, “secularization” and nationalism in Europe’s intellectual history
Mohamed Amer Meziane (Paris 1 University Panthéon-Sorbonne): Europe between Secularism and Empire: The construction of a "European identity" in the "Eastern Question"
Annemarije Hagen (University of Leuven): The Emancipatory Potential of Secularism: Political Disclosure and Conceptual Innovation

11.30-13.30 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 8: EARLY MODERN LAW AND SPACE IN EUROPE

Sophie Nicholls (University of Oxford): Jean Bodin on the idea of Europe: customary law versus ius gentium
Pärtel Piirimäe (University of Tartu, Estonia): Europeans and barbarians in law of nations from Grotius to Vattel
Caterina Di Fazio (Columbia University): The Role of Motion and Emotions in Early Modern Europe (1513-1651) Institution of Political Space
Simona Boscani Leoni (University of Berne): Perception of mountains and “national” identity during the Renaissance

13.30-14.30 LUNCH

14.30-16.00 KEYNOTE II CHRISTOPHER BERRY (GLASGOW) THE IDEA OF CIVILITY

16.00-18.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 8: CENTER(S)/MARGIN(S) OF EUROPE
Mateusz Orszulak (Munich University): The Question of European Identity in Travelogues of the Sixteenth Century in Czech, German and Italian Languages
Ian Stewart (LSE): Europa Celtica and the demise of a common European descent, c. 1750-1812
Heli Rantala (University of Turku): Rethinking the Centers and Margins of European Civilisation: Nordic Travellers in Revolutionary Paris

16.00-18.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 9: GREECE/EUROPE I

Eleutheria Zei (University of Crete): Intellectual itineraries of historical terminology

PANEL National Projects and Perceptions of Europe in 20th century Greece Effi Gazi (University of the Peloponnese), Katerina Papari ((National and Kapodistrian University of Athens), Alexandra Patrikiou (University of Crete)

16.00-18.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 10: HOBBES PANEL
Zak Black (University of Toronto): Unbinding Prometheus: Thomas Hobbes's Interpretation of Christianity
Stefan Brown (Queen's University): Samuel Clarke's atheist: the reception of Hobbes by early 18th century Boyle Lecturers
Stephen Clucas (Birkbeck, University of London) An early European critic of Hobbes's De corpore
Maritina Leontsini (National & Kapodistrian University of Athens): The Use of ‘Culture’ in Early Modern Dictionaries and Thomas Hobbes’ Leviathan; Being ‘Cultured’, Well Mannered and Educated in Early Modern Europe.

16.00-18.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 11: BOOK PANEL: NEW VOICES ON EUROPEAN ENLIGHTENMENT

Jacqueline Taylor: Reflecting Subjects, Passion, Sympathy, and Society in Hume's Philosophy, OUP, 2015
Philippe Raynaud: La politesse des Lumières. Les lois, les mœurs, les manières; Gallimard, 2013

18.00-18.30 COFFEE BREAK

18.30-20.00 KEYNOTE III DAVID ARMITAGE (HARVARD) COSMOPOLITANISM AND CIVIL WAR

21.00 CONFERENCE DINER

Thursday 5 May

09.30-11.30 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 1: PANEL: Compiling the Picture of Europe: Politics and the Museum
Lia Yoka (Aristotle University Thessaloniki) War and Spectacle: The European Tradition, Pinelopi Tsatsouli (Aristotle University Thessaloniki) The challenging task of planning a European History museum New readings and multiple interpretations of history Cindy Ott (Saint Louis University) Stuck in Time: European Colonial Past Alive and Well in German Museums, Hans-Peter Söder (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München): Picturing Europe as an Imaginary Museum: Nietzsche, Warburg, Benjamin, Malraux, Heidegger debate

09.30-11.30 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 2: GREECE/EUROPE II

Simos Zeniou (Harvard): “Then Greece arose In dream:” Philhellenism and the futurity of Europe in Shelley’s "Hellas"

Zinovia Lialiouti (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences, Athens): Failing to create an imagined transatlantic community: American cultural diplomacy and Greek intellectuals in the post-war period

Dimitris Kousouris (University of Vienna): Greece as a center and as a frontier of Europe

09.30-11.30 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 3: EUROPEAN ENLIGHTENMENT’S ANXIETIES

Jacqueline A Taylor (University of San Francisco): Education and the Female Sex: David Hume and Catharine Macaulay

Constantine Vassiliou (University of Toronto): Honour's Double Edge: Public Virtue and Commercial Vigour in Montesquieu's Political Thought

Benoît Walraevens (University of Caen Lower Normandy): Rousseau and Smith on Envy in Commercial Societies

Max Skjönsberg (London School of Economics and Political Science): Adam Ferguson’s reading of Montesquieu on party conflict in Roman and European contexts

11.30-12.00 COFFEE BREAK

12.00-1400 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 4: PANEL

Diego Lucci (American University in Bulgaria), Wayne Hudson (Charles Sturt University, Canberra) (Goldsmiths, University of London): The English Enlightenment, Religion, and the Making of Modernity

12.00-14.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 5: EUROPE IN INTERWAR

Kamber Keskin (Fatih University, Istanbul): Adaptation of European Political Concepts in the Late Ottoman Empire: The Attitude of A Sheik-ul-Islam (1848-1919)

Matthew Sparks (Georgetown University): Al-Fan wa-Al-Thura: Surrealism, Art, and the Spread of Global, Radical, Political Thought in Interwar Cairo 1939-1950

Marilena Papadaki: The idea of a European Union in the French sociological school of international law during the interwar period: the case of Nicolas Politis (1872-1942)

PANEL: Phenomenology and the Idea of Europe

Nicolas de Warren (KU Leuven) Daniel Leufer (KU Leuven) Francesco Tava (KU Leuven) Darian Meacham (University of West England)

12.00-14.00 CONCURRENT SESSIONS 6: IMPERIALISM/colonialism

Tomohito Baji: (University of Cambridge) An English Exceptionalism: E.A. Freeman on Race, Antiquity and the British Settler Empire

Larry McGrath (Wesleyan University) The Idea of Europe in the Colonial Classroom: Self, Psyche, and Education in Modern Algeria

Arthur Weststeijn (Royal Netherlands Institute in Rome): Republicanism and Imperialism: Rethinking Europe from the Perspective of the Dutch Republican Empire

Photis Baroutsos: Rethinking Medieval and Early Modern Colonialism in the Mediterranean

14.00 : Visit of Knosos archaeological site (DEPARTURE FROM RETHYMNON)
End of the conference